

ROADWAYS TO THE FEDERAL BENCH WHO, ME? A BANKRUPTCY JUDGE?

Live Broadcast from Washington, D.C.

Local Roundtable Discussions Among Federal Bench, Bar, and Law Students

Sandra Day O'Connor U.S. Courthouse
401 W. Washington Street - Phoenix, Arizona

October 24, 2019

1:00 - 3:00 p.m. MST

In an effort to foster diversity in the federal bench, the Judicial Conference of the United States Committee on the Administration of the Bankruptcy System is hosting an event to help lawyers and law students learn from sitting judges about their journeys to the bench.

The program will start with a live-streamed panel of distinguished judges, who will introduce the program to all 19 of the participating cities. The judges will talk about their own pathways to the bench, and they will offer their thoughts on the importance of diversity in the federal bankruptcy bench and bar.

The Arizona participants will then enjoy an hour of "round-robin" discussions. We are delighted that 17 Arizona circuit, district, bankruptcy, and magistrate judges will rotate through the tables for more in-depth discussions.

A gelato & cappuccino reception will follow.

There is no charge for this event.

Registration is open but may be limited due to space constraints.

register here: <https://www.uscourts.gov/judges-judgeships/about-federal-judges/event-registration-roadways-federal-bench-who-me-bankruptcy-judge>

For more information, please contact:

Denine Downs - 602-682-4224 or Denine_Downs@azb.uscourts.gov

Cristina Perez Hesano - 602-252-9937 or cperez@bellahperez.com